STAR WINERY OF THE MONTH

The world looks different these days, but that should never stop us from exploring new producers and trying out new labels from around the world. Introducing a brand new tasting where we feature a special winery each month and bring the winery experience to you.

Journey through the history, vinification and learn the style and expression through tasting a series of curated wines by our in-house sommelier.

Round up your friends and head over to grandcruwines.com to purchase a ticket and join us for a good time.

Ratings:

AG – Vinous

RP – Robert Parker Wine Advocate

"His style of wines lean towards the slightly more fruit-driven side – more Mortet than say Rousseau. His is a new name on the scene and judging by the quality of these 2018s, plus two or three 2017s, It is a name to look out for."

– Neal Martin, Vinous

Kicking off the month of September, we have the rising star of Burgundy – Domaine Henri Magnien

Founded in 1987, Domaine Henri Magnien is a small family estate, located in the upper village of Gevrey – Chambertin.

Henri Magnien et Fils has incredible holdings in some of the most hallowed vineyards. Revitalised under the stewardship of Henri's grandson, Charles Magnien, has since taken the wines to new heights.

Take this opportunity to taste the fantastic Premier Cru parcels in Gevrey which includes Estournelles St-Jacques and Les Cazetiers.
